Just a Word ...

by Fr. Harvey

Today's Feast of the Epiphany, the manifestation of Christ to the Gentile world represent-ed in the persons of the Magi, brings to conclusion the Christmas season. It has been a memorable one for me and, I hope, for you too. All good things must come to an end, so the saying goes. And that is true for the seasonal decorations. The "time for tearing down" that which was so carefully put in place, arrives this Wednesday evening. We will dismantle the trees and roping in short order with enough willing hands. If you can help with "operation clean-up," please come to the church on Wednesday evening at 7:30 p.m. Granted, the spirit is a little different than at the time of construction, but we are counting on your generosity once again.

APPRECIATION PARTY

Everyone who signed the Time and Talent survey should have received an invitation to attend a Parish Appreciation Party on Saturday, January 14, 1978. We thought an evening of socializing and dancing to a live band would be an appropriate way to say "thanks" to all who share their personal time and talent with the parish on so many occasions in innumerable ways. If by chance, your invitation did not arrive or if for some reason you did not sign the survey but are actively involved in some area of service, please make your reservations with the rectory office this week by calling 483-3360. Beer and pop and a variety of finger foods will be provided. We hope to see many, many parishioners for the evening party in the church hall.

CHURCH UNITY - TIME OF PRAYER

Our Worship Commission is on the ball again. The Worship Commission is making preparations for our parish to host an evening of special prayer for Christian unity during the traditional Church Unity Octave Week later this month. The local Episcopalian, Congregational, Presbyterian, Methodist, Lutheran and Baptist Churches have been invited to join with the parishioners of St. John's to pray and celebrate together. The theme for this year's time of prayer is "We Are No Longer Strangers..." How true Paul's words become as Christians realize that Christ has broken down the walls that separate us. The realization of unity has yet to be achieved. Perhaps, several "miles" remain to be travelled. But walk and even run, we must, "that all may be one."

This past week, I extended an invitation to Pastor Carl Leach, pastor of Emmanuel Lutheran Church to be the guest homilist during the prayer service on the 24th of this month. Rev. Leach is a good friend in the local ministry as well as my successor as chairman of the Ypsilanti Ministerial Association.

I hope you will make plans to keep that Tuesday evening open so that you may be among the many who welcome our neighbors to our community.

Anniversaries To Be Celebrated at 9:00 Mass Next Sunday

Next Sunday, January 15, 1978, two couples in St. John Parish will be celebrating anniversaries: Mr. and Mrs. LaVerne Kerner, 40 years, and Mr. and Mrs. Michael Cicirelli, 25 years. We join together to wish them much happiness and congratulations as we honor them in a special Mass at 9:00 a.m. A parish reception will follow in the parish hall.

Christmas Thank You

Dear Friends:

Thanks so much for your most generous special Christmas offering I received from Sister Carol for Meals on Wheels. This wonderful donation will be an important help as we carry on our program. We serve people strictly on a basis of need of the service regardless of race, religion or income. We are most grateful for the support you have been giving us, both financially and with volunteers going on the route. We are especially grateful for this extra help you are giving us now.

May you and yours have a most joyous and healthy New Year.

Sincerely,
Karen Peters Rominski
Coordinator

Dear Fr. Harvey,

As both a new parishioner and a volunteer with Problem Pregnancy Help, I was very pleased with the opportunity you gave to the family of St. John's to help out parents who seek our aid. The baby gifts were beautiful - many even were handmade! We are a small organization and appreciate the many things you gave to us. We are enjoying the preparation of layettes with our new baby gifts.

God bless you,
Betty J. Holbert

Church Unity Octave

Ever since 1517, when Martin Luther started the Protestant Reformation, the Christian faith has been divided to such a great extent that nations have even gone to war with each other over religious differences. During the past decade the Catholic Church and the Protestant Churches have been making concerted efforts to work closer together, and possibly, even toward the day when the differences can be resolved completely.

In that spirit, the days of January 18th through January 25th have been set aside as a week of prayer for Christian unity. During these eight days all Catholics are asked to participate in these prayers.

On Tuesday, January 24th, there will be a non-sectarian prayer service held at our parish at 7:30 p.m. Several area ministers have been invited to attend and officiate, and it is hoped that many of their parishioners as well as our own, will attend that evening.

There will be more information concerning this in next week's bulletin.

Robert E. Helm
Worship Commission Chairman

Offertory Observation

"People are happier at Yule time because they take the milk of human kindness out of the deep freeze." As Christians, our generosity toward God and man should never be in the deep freeze. It shouldn't even be chilled.

In His Care

Let not your soul be troubled
Though sorrows you may bear,
For God who loves you tenderly
Will keep you in His care.

He longs to ease your burden,
Your grief and pain to share,
If you will but remember
He keeps you in His care.

Though seas of life be stormy,
Though skies may not be fair,
Yet He will grant you peace of heart
Who keeps you in His care.

Thank God For Little Things

Thank you, God, for little things
that often come our way-
The things we take for granted
but don't mention when we pray-
The unexpected courtesy,
the thoughtful, kindly deed-
A hand reached out to help us
in the time of sudden need-
Oh, make us more aware, dear God,
of little daily graces
That comes to us with 'sweet surprise'
from never-dreamed-of places.

Helen Steiner Rice

Time and Talent Party

Letters of RSVP have been sent to all who have signed the Time and Talent for this year. We will appreciate your response as soon as possible to determine food amount. Some letters have been returned with notation of not being deliverable. If you did not receive a letter yet, this may be the reason. Also, it has come to our attention that some parishioners are helping on various Commission committees who have not signed a T and T sheet. You, of course, are certainly invited. Just call the secretary at 483-3360 and let us know your plans to attend.

BYOB - Beer and Set-ups provided as well as finger foods and a lively band. Come enjoy the wing-ding in your honor.

Adopted Grandparent Workshop
December 10

Adopted Grandparent Visiting Day
December 17

The real signs of Christmas will last long after the pine and tinsel are gone. The joy that is experienced in making and giving gifts, the love that is experienced in receiving and treasuring gifts and the all around good feeling that comes from knowing someone has brightened a day are memories that will warm the hearts of grandparents, students and teachers for a long time to come.

January 1978 Issues

The January issue of TODAY'S PARISH will feature a unique 14-Church venture in ecumenism - A Jesus Street Scene - A Good Friday Way of the Cross which regularly attracts more than 300 persons. Also included: Revitalizing Penance, Healing the Wound When a Child Dies, and A 1978 Family Lenten Calendar.

The January/February issue of NEW CATHOLIC WORLD presents the responses of 21 Christians to the question, "How Do I Celebrate My Faith?" Their essays show a rich diversity in ways of celebrating: through the gift of laughter, by creating symbolic rituals for daily life, through dance, through the gift of imagining, through their relationships with others.

The NATIONAL CATHOLIC REPORTER'S Lenten series this year will feature a well known priest-theologian discussing the difficult question: Who is a Catholic? From pastoral needs, to the role of women in the church, the series will look in a spiritual way at those who are today, Catholics, and proud to be so. The National Catholic Reporter Lenten series begins with the WHAT issue.

Mr. Donald J. Thorman, publisher of National Catholic Reporter, passed away November 30. Let us remember him in our prayers.

COMMONWEAL'S first two issues of the New Year contain a wealth of pertinent comment on questions of the day: outspoken editorials, reports from Washington, the views of stimulating columnists and timely feature articles - good reading that makes this lay-edited, biweekly journal of opinion so widely quoted. The January 20 issue puts special stress on questions confronting schools and colleges today.

Intercessory Prayer

Praised be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who has bestowed on us in Christ every spiritual blessing in the heavens. God chose us in Him before the world began, to be holy and blameless in his sight, to be full of love to you and to one another. Lord, your power shall be known to us, your servants. For we have sought you, and you answered us, and have delivered us from all fears. Blessed be God forever. Blessed be His holy name.

Lord in renewed faith we pray for our parish team, and we pray for an associate to help Father Harvey with St. John's family. We pray for vocations in our parish: that young men and women will answer your call to the religious vocation. We pray for our many sick brothers and sisters, for those who are in pain and suffering. Heal them Lord. We pray for our shut-ins, for the aged, for those who feel rejected. Bring to them the peace and joy of your Son, Jesus. Love them Lord. We pray for the Good Samaritan Membership Program. This is our way to reach out and help those in need: the hungry, the poor and those with family problems. We pray for Andrea Marie who through the sacrament of Holy Baptism has come into St. John's family of God. We pray for those who have died. May they experience the joy in the kingdom of God. We pray for the Genesis II groups and Fr. Delaney's scripture course.

The Word became flesh and made His dwelling among us. And we have seen His glory: the glory of an only Son coming from the Father, filled with enduring love.

May the peace and love of the living God be with all of us now and forever.
